

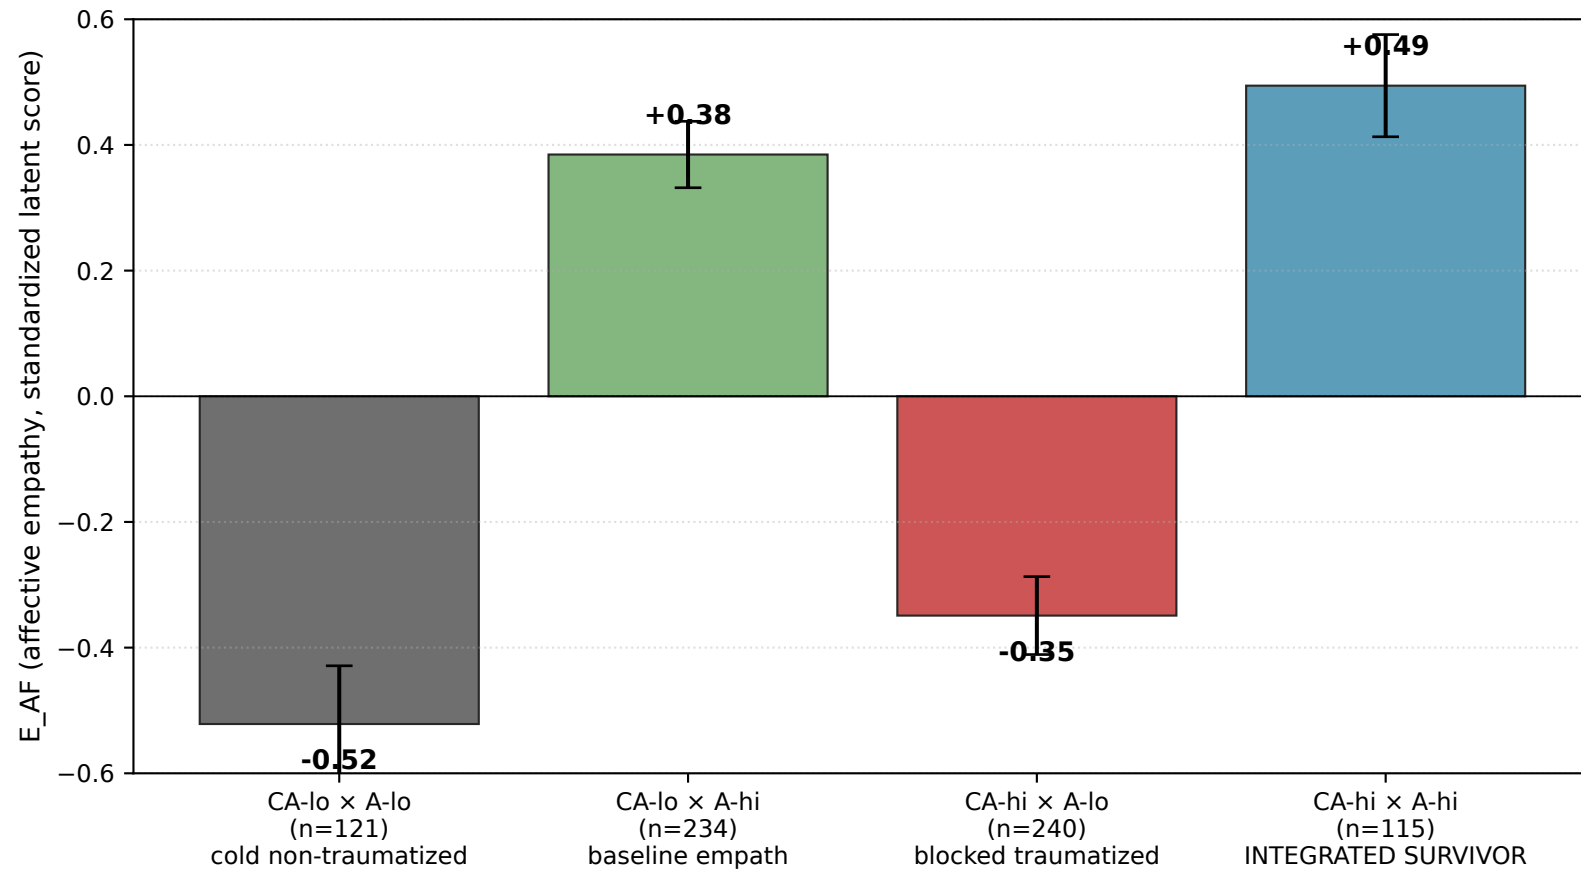

Figure 4. Integrated survivor: affective empathy by CA × A median split (N = 710)

CA-hi × A-hi subgroup (n = 118, 17% of sample) shows the highest affective empathy — higher than the uninjured baseline empathy group. The "wounded-healer" phenotype exists in the data and is not rare.